Female Literacy Rate

1370. DR. B.B. DUTTA: Will the Minister of HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state:

(a) the magnitude of gender-wise difference in literacy, State-wise;

(b) the factors responsible for the poor female literacy rate; and

(c) the steps taken by Government to improve female literacy, especially in the Northern and the North-Eastem Regions?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION IN THE MINISTRY OF HUMAN RE-SOURSE DEVELOPMENT (SHRI MUHI RAM SAIKIA): (a) A statement indicating the female and male literacy rates as per Census 1991 is annexed. {See below)

Historically, a variety of socio-economic and cultural factors have been found to be responsible for poor female literacy rate. Low enrolment of girls in schools, low retention rate and high drop-out rate are more immediate causes responsible for poor female literacy rate.

The Scheme of Universalisation of Elementary Education, Non-Formal Education for School Dropouts, Total Literacy Campaigns of the National Literacy Mission form the three pronged strategy for increasing female literacy in the county, especially in Northern and North-Eastern regions. In the North-Eastern region where Total Literacy Campaigns have not been launched the Scheme of Rural Functional Literacy Project is under implementation for Adult Education purposes with due stress on coverage of women learners.
